GRAND MONARCH'S MESSAGE

Prophets and Ladies,

Lois and I want to thank all of our many friends who have gone out of their way to show us a good time in all of our travels. It is hard to believe that we have been to nine Conventions in our first four months since installation.

Our goal for this year is to increase membership in the Grotto. I would like to share three rules for membership:

1. Keep the members you have
2. Get new members
3. Make the Grotto experience valuable

If you do number 3, 1 and 2 will be OK. To those Grottoes that are growing, Congratulations! The recruiters of the months are:

July: David Hinton PM of Samis Grotto, 8 new Prophets

August: Chuck Shubert PM of Quetta Grotto, 2 new Prophets

September: Victor Mann Monarch of Azim Grotto, 16 new Prophets

October: Richard Taman PM of El Jaala Grotto, 10 new Prophets

We would like to invite everyone to Mobile, Alabama for the 124th Supreme Council Session. Visit the Supreme Council's website, www.scgrotto.org, for registration forms and to get information on tours. For those who like to golf, we have some good prizes to give away and transportation will be provided to and from the Golf Course.

Hospitality Rooms are available at $50.00 per night. Make checks payable to Zelica Grotto Convention Fund. Contact me for a Hospitality Room reservation.

Our theme for our year is "Dance thru life with the Grotto." It's not about getting out on the dance floor, but instead, every time you lend a hand to someone else or smooth the way through a difficult time, you are dancing thru life.

Our charity for the Grottoes of North America is our own Humanitarian Foundation. We want to thank those who have participated with the Enchanted Lantern and Fairchild programs. Please keep up the good work with your contributions.

Yours in Goodfellowship,

Otto Thiergart, Grand Monarch

P.S. There will be a live band at the Red Tassel Party!

Grand Monarch Otto Thiergart and his Lady Lois

PROPHET KARL WALLEDA

MICHAEL G. WAHL, PGM, 33° GRAND HISTORIAN

As far back as 1780, in the cafes of Old Bohemia in the Austro-Hungarian Empire, the ancestral Wallenda family was a traveling circus troupe consisting of acrobats, jugglers, clowns, aerialists and animal trainers all in one family.

They traveled through the villages of Europe setting up and performing in the city squares, trusting in their talent and skills to provoke thrills and joy, relying on the generosity of the audience to reward them as they passed the hat around. In the late 1800s, for the next two generations, they became known for their expertise in the art of flying trapeze.

Karl Wallenda was born in Magdeburg, Germany, in 1905. He was performing in the family show at age six and doing stunts in beer halls at age eleven. His feature was stacking several chairs and doing a handstand on the top chair. In the early 1920s, he answered an ad in a trade paper for “an experienced hand balancer with courage.” The job consisted of following behind a wire-walker, out to the middle of the wire and doing a handstand on the man’s feet as he lay down on the cable. In 1922 Karl developed his own act, recruiting his brother Herman, an aerialist named Josef Geiger, and a teenage girl, Helen Kreis, who would eventually become Karl’s wife.

The act toured Europe for several years and featured an amazing 4-person, 3-level pyramid. Karl precariously balanced on a chair on top of a bar between the shoulders of the two men who were on bicycles on a wire 50 feet in the air while Helen would stand on Karl’s shoulders! This act was such a sensation that when John Ringling saw them performing in Cuba, he immediately contracted them to appear with the “Greatest Show On Earth.” When the Great Wallendas debuted their act (without a net - it had been misplaced in shipping) at Madison Square Garden in 1928, they received a standing ovation that lasted 15 minutes! Never before or to date has applause stopped a performance for that length of time.

The Great Wallendas were headliners with Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey Circus during much of the 1930s and 1940s. In 1947 Karl began to build a circus of his own. At the Wallenda’s Sarasota, Florida, home that winter, he also created his crowning achievement—the seven-person chair pyramid. Four men stood on a wire 35 feet in the air, two pairs yoked together by shoulder bars. On top of them on the second level stood two more men, again yoked together with a shoulder bar. At the pinnacle of this pyramid was a woman sitting and then standing on a chair! This trick was successfully performed from 1948 through 1962 by the Wallendas with an occasional change of family members and varying conditions, including surviving an earthquake in South America. After a catastrophic fall in Detroit the Seven was only done again on two subsequent occasions: In 1963, to prove that life does continue and that disaster does not have to end in defeat, and again in 1977, recreated primarily by Karl’s grandchildren for the movie The Great Wallendas.

Karl continued performing as the feature performer with a smaller troupe and became increasingly popular doing “Sky Walks,” walking between buildings and across stadiums, including Busch, Veterans, JFK, 3 Rivers Stadiums and the Astrodome, among others. His most famous walk was a 1200-foot long trek across the Tallulah Falls Gorge in Georgia, where 30,000 people watched as this 65-year-old legend performed two separate headstands at a height of over 700 feet in the air.

It was during a promotional walk in San Juan, Puerto Rico, in March, 1978, that the patriarch of the Great Wallendas fell to his death at age 73. Not because of his age or capabilities, not because of the wind, but because of several misconnected guy ropes along the wire. Karl once said, “Life is being on the wire, everything else is just waiting.” The Wallenda legacy lives on to the sixth and seventh generations through Karl’s grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

RETENTION!

Rev. Matthew Wissell, PM 33° Grand Orator

Suspending a Prophet for non-payment of dues is a sad moment in the life of any Grotto. Unfortunately, it is a necessary part of maintaining the integrity and financial health of the Realm. It is also an opportunity to maybe learn something about your Grotto, or even get the Prophet active again. The ideal situation is of course never allowing it to get to that point. Let me share a few thoughts on steps that can be taken to possibly prevent an NPD suspension.

There was a woman in the church I grew up in named Esther. Esther would sit in the back of the sanctuary every Sunday and look at who was present. She knew almost every single member of the congregation. If someone was missing for two weeks in a row, the name was passed on to the pastor for follow-up. It was a great way to make sure people knew they were cared about.

Does your Grotto have someone like Esther? Is there a Prophet who knows who is missing? It could be a job for the Sentinel or Captain of the Guard. Let the Monarch know who is missing so he can send an email or note. Even better, he can make a phone call or a visit to find out what is happening in the Prophet's life. He might have just had a couple of conflicting events in a row or maybe it is something more. You will never know unless you contact him.

Another person who is important in the retention process is the sponsor. So often a Prophet is excited to recruit a new Prophet. But what happens at the second meeting? Does the sponsoring Prophet help the newly initiated Prophet become a part of the Grotto? Does he make sure he is developing a love of Grotto? This is the first step in preventing an NPD suspension.

If it comes to the point where you are prepared to suspend a Prophet, please speak to him first. Do not just send him a letter or an email. Have someone, preferably the Monarch, or the Membership and/or Suspension Chairman, talk to him about the Grotto. Why is he not paying his dues? Is it because his expectations were not being met? Is it due to financial hardship? We ought to know if there is something we can do to keep him as a part of the Realm. If not, we can use what we learned to keep the same situation from happening to another Prophet.

Retention happens one Prophet at a time. Retention happens when the Grotto is important to a Prophet and a Prophet is important to the Grotto. Do everything you can to let your fellow Prophets know how important they are to you and your Grotto.

Move Up for Rosie!

This holiday season, consider moving up your support for the Humanitarian Foundation to the next level and really make a difference for the entire family of a special needs child.

Grottoes:
Saying thank you for the amazing way you have helped our family seems so totally insufficient. Not only did your financial aid provide our little Rosie with the dental care she desperately needed, but it also allowed us the freedom to provide Christmas gifts for all three of our children.

*Very sincerely,
Rosie's Mom*

By Moving Up to the next level of support, you not only provide dental work for a special needs child but you also help their family have a better holiday.

- If you have bought an Enchanted Lantern, consider Moving Up to the 5 for 5 Club! That means pledging to buy 1 lantern each year for the next 5 years.
- If you're a member of the 5 for 5 Club, consider Moving Up to the Fairchild Society. Fairchild pledges can be paid over time and start at $250 for the Monarch Circle

- If you are a Monarch Circle member, consider Moving Up to Grand Monarch - $500
- If you are a Grand Monarch Circle member, consider Moving Up to Silver Circle - $1,000

What the Better Business Bureau Wise Giving Alliance National Charity Seal means to charities and donors...

The BBB Wise Giving Alliance National Charity Seal carries a lot of meaning for both donors and charities.

For donors, the appearance of the seal in a charity's mailings, on its website, in newspapers and magazine advertisements or elsewhere is a clear and concise sign that the charity meets the Alliance's Standards for Charity Accountability.

Donors may not know though, that for charities putting the seal in their materials is the culmination of a demanding process. Before national charities can even apply to use the seal, they must undergo evaluation by the BBB Wise Giving Alliance, the nation's most experienced charity evaluator. And the evaluation process is anything but superficial. It involves rigorous scrutiny of a charity's governance, effectiveness, finances and solicitations and informational materials. The standards go beyond what government regulators require.

Only organizations that come through an Alliance review with a "meets standards" conclusion are eligible to participate in the seal program. Not all will decide to do so. Participation is entirely voluntary and involves licensing agreement and fee. But more and more charities report that the seal gives them an efficient way of demonstrating their commitment to accountability and ethical practices, the values that donors are looking for. This commitment is all the more credible when it is verified by the familiar and respected BBB Wise Giving Alliance.

"National charities that display the BBB Wise Giving Alliance seal can do so with pride," says Art Taylor, President and CEO of the Alliance. "Not only are they attesting to their organizations' adherence to sound standards, they are helping to increase donor confidence and strengthen public trust in giving."

In order for them to vote you must notify the Supreme Council office, in writing, (forms will be mailed mid-March) the names and Supreme Council number of the three (3) Red Tassel Prophets eligible to vote. In no circumstance will a Red Tassel Prophet be allowed to vote unless this notification is received with the Secretary's Attestation by the SC office by the set deadline of April 25, 2014. Those entitled to vote at a Supreme Council Session consist of all Past Monarchs of Grottoes in attendance (including at Large) and incumbent Monarchs, Chief Justices, Master of Ceremonies and Secretaries, or their alternates. A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SMCO

Greetings Prophets, Ladies and Daughters:

My first honor is to congratulate our Grand Monarch Otto Thiergart and Lady Lois in behalf of the Daughters of Mokanna. They are very special friends and we wish for them, safe travels and a very successful year. We look forward to their visits and The Supreme Council Session.

My friends, I have enjoyed visiting with many of you for years with my PM Willy Carreras, the Dr. of Smiles for 2013. It is now my honor to address you as Supreme Mighty Chosen One of the Supreme Caldron of the Daughters of Mokanna. The installation was at our Supreme Session in Akron, Ohio. The most exciting thing for me, other than my installation, is for the Grotto Ladies who support the programs and activities but have no Caldron. We are inviting you to join the Supreme Caldron. We want you to visit our meetings as you travel and come to the Supreme Session to share fun and fellowship. You should have a Supreme Caldron fez and be recognized for your supporting role in the Grottoes of North America.

My goals this year are to make a difference in the lives of our special needs children and their families and to increase our membership with new active, caring members to help share the fun of getting out the message “Make A Difference.”

Sandy Carreras, SMCO
