THE GRAND MONARCH'S MESSAGE

Introducing Grand Monarch Michael and First Lady Karen Dempsey

Greetings all,

First, let me say what an honor you have bestowed upon me by electing me as your Grand Monarch. Lady Karen and I are pleased to serve each and every one of you in the coming year.

I would also like to say Thank You to Past Grand Monarch Mark L McCombs and Lady Joan. The two of you made our journey through the line such a wonderful experience. What a great convention was put on by them in Perrysburg, Ohio. If you missed the National Convention you really missed out. Look for pictures in this Grotto magazine.

Congratulations to David Korb and Lady Kelly on being elected Grand Captain of the Guard. It was an honor passing my grand line ring down to you.

Congratulations, also, to Marty Trent on being elected Grand Treasurer. You are stepping into some big shoes, but I am confident you will rise to the challenge.

Lady Karen's charm charity is The League of Miracles. It is an organization that provides baseball diamonds for children with special needs. It is a not-for-profit organization where special needs children, up to the age of eighteen, can play baseball. They can be in a wheelchair or they can be assisted by a parent. It is wonderful to watch these children having so much fun.

Since I am talking about charity, let me address our foundation. The five foundation trustees have set a budget that this year they are living to. This is important because they have made substantial cuts that affect the giving of the Foundation. Chairman Jim Payton has been working really hard to make this possible. The trustees are doing an excellent job looking after our funds.

Let's talk membership and retention. We must retain the members that we have now in order to grow. We must find them something to do. Every member wants to feel like they are needed. Give them a job setting up for an event, helping with the event, even if it is doing cleanup after the event. Give every member something to do, hold them accountable and remember to say THANK YOU. Remember what it was like when you came into the Grotto.

Membership into the Grotto was an honor and a privilege. The Grotto has to be more than just another meeting. Grotto is about having fun. Nobody says remember that time we were at a meeting. No, it was remember that time we were at the Grotto picnic, or we were at the Grotto parade, or we were at the Grotto dance. The Grotto is about fun.

So in closing, remember, Grotto membership is a privilege, and you can honor that privilege by having fun.

Fraternally,

Mike Dempsey
Grand Monarch of the Grottoes of North America

Meet the Grand Monarch....

Mike was born on July 25, 1956. He graduated from Decatur Central high school in 1974. He went on to attend IUPUI and later worked for General Motors for 32 years.

Karen and Mike have known each other since they were 8 years old. They were married on the Rainbow Bridge overlooking Niagara Falls at the national convention. Mike has two sons and two stepdaughters, as well as twelve grandchildren.

Mike joined Mooresville Masonic Lodge in 1997 where he served as Worshipful Master in 2016. In 1998 he joined The Indianapolis Valley of the Scottish Rite where he serves as Junior Warden, Sahara Grotto where he served as Monarch in 2008 and Murat Shrine. He has also served on the Indiana Masonic Home Board.

Mike joined the York Rite Westside Chapter, Waksman Council, William Bray Commandery and Imhotep AMD where he serves as Senior Warden. He is also a member of Isley York Rite College where he received the Award of Gold and has also joined Mooresville Eastern Star Chapter #260.

Join us in wishing Grand Monarch Mike and First Lady Karen a safe and successful year.

Congratulations to PGM Mark and Lady Joan on a one of a kind convention!

A successful week that celebrated a different holiday every day.

Family, Fun and Fellowship were clearly the hallmark of their event.

The Grottoes of North America and the Supreme Council Office would like to welcome each of these new Prophets to the Enchanted Realm.

We hope that you find that fun and fellowship abounds, not just at your local Grotto, but at the Associations and at the Annual Sessions each summer.

Please ask your Grotto's officers what you can do to help at the various events they hold, how you can become an officer of your Grotto and when and where the next Annual Session is.

If you ever need further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact the Supreme Council Office at 614-933-9193.

Welcome!

Wednesday at the 127th Annual Session, there was a bit of magic and mystery in the air. Bowling was an added event this year for those who didn't want to golf. Later, an ice cream social started the evening, followed by the official Grand Opening. Afterward, with everyone already dressed for an evening of Halloween fun, the Hospitality Room Contest began. Below are some photos to show the Tricks and Treats of the first night of the Holidays with the Grotto Family!

Thursday's Events at the 127th Annual Session

Meetings, Awards, Thanksgiving, Charity and Entertainment

Thanksgiving dinner was delicious and very well attended. Blessings were bountiful as all enjoyed this very special evening.

Entertainer Johnny Counterfit provided some great songs, and impersonations, from yesteryear while the crowd joined in, and at times, took over the singing. Great fun and fellowship!

Happy Thanksgiving!

Pictured with Chairman of the Humanitarian Foundation, Jim Payton and Trustee PGM Richard Faust is PGM Michael Yuskowatz, who presented HF with a $10,000 check from the Esther and George Jaruga Charitable Foundation in memory of his daughter-in-law's uncle who was a dentist.

Santa came to Perrysburg on Friday evening during the Grand Monarch's Banquet. A wonderful meal was served and once again the Grottoes of North America was surrounded in the blessings of Family, Friends, Fellowship and Fun.

As the week drew to an end, a new Grand Monarch was crowned, clown competitions heated up and the Prophets celebrated New Year's Eve during the Red Tassel Party.

On the last day of the Annual Session each year, a new Grand Monarch is installed. We would like to wish our new Grand Monarch and First Lady, Michael and Karen Dempsey, a successful and fun-filled year. We hope everyone gets the chance to meet this couple as they travel the Realm visiting the Grottoes and Associations. May their work be inspiring and their journey safe.

Congratulations

Thank You

The Supreme Council Office and Grand Line Officers would like to thank Scott Nave of Singara Grotto and Robert Stubbs of Sahara Grotto for providing these pictures from the 177th Annual Session. Your time and contribution is greatly appreciated.

We hope everyone enjoys a brief look at this convention. We will be adding these pictures, and more, to the website at www.scgrotto.org

Enjoy!

A LITTLE GROTTO HISTORY

Ever wonder where your Grotto's name came from, what the Grotto ceremonial is based on, or what was being referred to in a ceremonial paragraph? I have and in the last case it took almost 40 years to find the answer.

As for the early Grotto names, and underlying story behind the ceremonial, you only need to refer to the book "LALLA ROOKH" by THOMAS MOORE written in the 1800s. As a young Prophet, I was told this, by a Past Monarch or Past Grand Monarch of Achbar or Amrou Grotto in approximately 1985, and found the book at the Ohio Wesleyan University while living in Delaware, Ohio. I made an attempt to read this masterpiece, but with work, a young family, traveling with Khana Shahar Grotto, and learning my part in the ceremonial, made the chore one of labor rather than love and I gave up. Clark Wiley (then an officer at Ormus Grotto in Dayton, Ohio, and Grotto traveling mate) made it through the book with ease and appreciation. It should be pointed out that I never met anyone else so disciplined in making the time to read as his perceived practice to read a section out of 4-5 novels an evening. For me, reading footnotes to understand what I had just read in the previous paragraphs was too much.

Time has marched on and I now find myself a has-been with patience, desire, and time to re-attempt this book. For those interested E-bay has multiple copies, and a wide range of prices, depending on edition and cover material.

As I progress through this book I hope to report the origins of many Grotto namesakes in future articles. As for the "what was being referred to in a ceremonial paragraph," I refer to page 53 in the white/cream or blue colored GROTTO FORMS AND CEREMONIES M.O.V.P.E.R. book, when his majesty says "you have a fable of a frog which ambioned to become an ox." What fable, what frog, and what really happened? The internet and Google made short swift of it. As I was fishing on my boat on Indian Lake Ohio and learning yet another part in the ceremonial I could no longer read over this and move on. If I was going to say it, I ought to know what it refers to. How was I too know this gem is from "AESOP'S FABLES"? Google Aesop's Fables about frog and ox and you, too, will know the meaning behind this literary gem uttered by His Majesty.

Mark L. McCombs
Junior Past Grand Monarch
Grand Historian

Dear All,

It was wonderful to meet so many of you at the Supreme Council Session in Perrysburg, Ohio, this past June. I was proud to represent the Daughters of Mokanna and hope you gained a greater understanding of our purpose and connection we have to the Grotto. Thank you for your generous hospitality and the opportunity to bring greetings.

One of the greatest highlights of the convention for me was initiating 9 new members into our Order. Special thanks to Immediate Past Grand Monarch Mark McCombs for making that day possible. Welcome to our newest Daughters; we know you will join our efforts in supporting the Grotto and its charitable good works!

Rosemary Ayhens - Baldwinsville, NY
Elizabeth Jarnagin - Van Nuys, CA
Patricia Fries - McMinnville, OR
Brenda Ward - Sarasota, FL

Linda Stratton - Columbus, OH

Another Session highlight was announcing to the assembly that the Daughters of Mokanna contributed nearly $10,000 to the Humanitarian Foundation this year. Our purchases of Enchanted Lanterns nearly doubled from last year, and many Daughters contributed individually to the Fairchild Society. We are very proud of this support.

I will step down as Supreme Mighty Chosen One on September 17 at the close of our 98th Annual Supreme Session in Canton, OH and pass the baton to my very good friend Debbie Kempke of Al Sirat Caldron in Cleveland, OH. I know you will give Debbie the same support I received, and the relationship between our two organizations will continue to strengthen and grow. Debbie's email is micmse67@gmail.com.

May GM Mike, his officers and all Prophets and Ladies enjoy safe travels and many successes in this year of service.

God bless,
Cindy Gay, Supreme Mighty Chosen One
Daughters of Mokanna

Hotel Reservations for the 128th Annual Session can be made at the Wyndham West Indianapolis by calling: 317-248-2481. Be sure to tell them you are with the Grottoes of North America!

Humanitarian Foundation Matters....

Your Humanitarian Foundation Trustees want to give a big thank you to our guests for their generous donations during Thursday night's HF program at the International Convention in Perrysburg, Ohio.

In the letter to our dental providers and Dr. of Smiles, there seems to be some confusion. We have not discontinued our program. We simply have exceeded our dental budget for 2017. We are working hard to correct budget shortcomings. There are still preapproved cases that will be paid when the work is completed. The Foundation will be revising the guidelines to allow monies to be more widely distributed. All cases will have to be preapproved, including routine and preventive care. The preapprovals will have an expiration date and will not be carried over for an indefinite time.

The Foundation welcomes our latest appointee, Bill Thomas, to our board. He brings valuable tools for us to use. At the same time, we want to thank PGM Dick Faust, for his time served on the board.

As of January 2018, we will again be helping as many Special Needs Children as possible, one smile at a time.

On a final note, please continue to support our many fundraising projects. Your donations will continue to help ease some of the costs of dental care to the families of these special needs children.

Yours in Goodfellowship,
*James "Jim" Payton, PM
Chairman*
